

Read the questions and instructions carefully. If you need completing this form, contact the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office (as listed on page 9).

All applications when completed and signed by the applicant and the employer are to be sent to the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office. Incomplete applications and applications missing the required non-refundable fee, transcripts or documents will be returned to the applicant. Only when the application is returned to the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office complete will it be processed.

To participate in an Alberta apprenticeship program you must have an employer who is willing to employ you as an apprentice and is able to provide you with supervision and training.

Before applying, check with your provincial or territorial apprenticeship office to see if your trade is designated in your province or territory. If it is, you will need to submit a letter from your province or territory authorizing Alberta to register you as an apprentice.

If you are a registered apprentice in your province or territory and are applying to attend technical training in Alberta, do not fill out this application. Contact your provincial or territorial apprenticeship office for arrangements.

Information / Instructions for Apprenticeship Application and Contract

Following these simple steps will allow your application to be processed quickly:

1. Read all the questions carefully and answer them completely. The numbered explanations in these pages correspond to the numbered sections on the application.
2. Print in ink.
3. Attach the required documentation.
4. Submit your signed and completed application and the required non-refundable fee, transcripts and other documents to the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office (as listed on page 8).

For further information on how to complete this application, contact the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office (as listed on page 8).

1 Trade

- Print the name of the trade in which you want to apprentice. See Page 1 for a list of Alberta-designated trades.

2 Personal Information

- Section 2 is to be completed by the person applying to become an apprentice. Please print in ink.
- Please ensure that you have completed the application and that you have signed section 3 (page 3) and section 8 (page 9) of the application.
- The Alberta Student Number (ASN) provides all Alberta 'learners' with one ID number that will be used from kindergarten through post secondary studies, including Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training. The ASN is used to streamline the disbursement of provincial funding to Alberta learners.

The ASN is recorded on Alberta High School Transcripts or is available on the Learner Registry at <http://www.education.gov.ab.ca/learning/student-services/ASNLookup>.

If you do not have an ASN (e.g., if you have moved to Alberta from another province), a 'Request for Alberta Student Number' form is available on the same website.

- Response to the question on Aboriginal status is voluntary. The information is being collected to ensure the department meets its mandate and responsibilities to measure system effectiveness and develop policies, programs and services to improve Aboriginal learner success in addition to other legislation applicable to the educational institution.
- If you change your name or address in the future, contact the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training Interprovincial Services office immediately so your records can be updated.

Notification: We are collecting the personal information in this application under the authority of section 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000, to determine and verify your eligibility to participate in an Alberta Apprenticeship Program. If you enter an Alberta Apprenticeship Program, this information and the personal information we obtain throughout your program will be used to administer your apprenticeship program, the Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act and the Interprovincial Standards (Red Seal) program, to help you get financial support, where applicable, under the Employment Insurance Act (Canada) and the Students' Finance Act, and for research and statistical purposes. If you have any questions about the collection of this information, you may contact the Director, Business Support and Certification, Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Alberta Advanced Education and Technology. Telephone (780) 427-8765.

3 Consent to Disclose Personal Information

- In this section we ask you to give us your consent to disclose the personal information you provide on the application form and the personal information we obtain during your apprenticeship program for one situation that is not included in the notification on the bottom of page 1 of the application.
- Your consent is voluntary. If you do not give your consent, it will not stop your application from being considered or stop your participation in an apprenticeship program. However, It may restrict your ability to receive an award recognizing your achievement as an apprentice.
- You may withdraw your consent at any time but must do so in writing to the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office (as listed on page 8).
- Sign and date your consent to disclose personal information.

4 Employer Information

Section 4 is to be completed by the employer. The employer's signature is also required in section 8 (page 9).

Self-Employed Apprentice Requirements:

- If you are a self-employed apprentice, please have the tradesperson or company with whom you have made arrangements for supervision of your training complete this section of the application.

Employer Information:

- If the applicant has previous work experience in the trade, as indicated in section 6 of the application, you (the employer) may recommend that the applicant be granted time credit toward the on-the-job training component of the apprenticeship program. You (the employer) must indicate the TOTAL recommended time credit the applicant is to receive, in both months and hours (e.g. 18 months, 2100 hours).
- If the time credit recommended for on-the-job training exceeds one year, you (the employer) may also recommend the applicant challenge an examination(s) instead of taking technical training. (Note: There is a fee for the examination(s).) As the employer, you must check one box only in support of a recommendation that the applicant challenge the examination or attend technical training.
- If you change the name or address of your business, please contact the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training, Interprovincial Services office immediately so your records can be updated.

5 Education and Training: Applicant Information

Describe the formal or technical training you have completed in the trade identified in section 1 or in any other trade. If you need more space, put the additional information on a separate page. Attach a certified true copy of all supporting documentation (e.g., certificate, diploma, or transcript) to your application.

Describe any certificates, credentials or documents you hold for the trade identified in section 1 or in any other trade. If you need more space, put the additional information on a separate page. Please attach a certified true copy of each certificate, credential or document to your application.

If the trade identified in section 1 requires you to demonstrate the successful completion of minimum entrance requirements and you have met the minimum entrance requirements, follow the directions below:

- If you attended high school in Alberta, you do not need to get an official transcript of your high school marks. Your Alberta high school marks will be verified by Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training.
- If you attended high school in another Canadian province or territory, please contact the Department of Education in that province or territory to get an official transcript.
- If an official transcript does not accompany this form, and your high school marks cannot be verified or if you do not meet the entrance requirement for your selected trade, you may be eligible to enter the apprenticeship program by passing an entrance examination. If required, you will be scheduled for an entrance examination.
- If your documents are written in a language other than English, they must be translated by a certified member of the Association of Translators and Interpreters of Alberta. For referral to a certified translator, contact the Association of Translators & Interpreters of Alberta (ATIA) at (780) 434-8384 or 1-888-434-2842.

If you cannot demonstrate that you have met the minimum entrance requirements for the trade identified in section 1, you have the option to write an entrance examination (see Alberta Prior Learning Assessment application).
